Worship leaders around the world are sadly changing their church's worship (often unintentionally) into a spectator event, and people aren't singing anymore. Before discussing our present situation, let's look back into history. Prior to the Reformation, worship was largely done for the people.

The 60s are by far one of my favorite decades of music, and in a way, I sometimes enjoy the 60s a lot more than the 70s. The 60s were a lot more experimental and laid the ground work for many of the bands that would start emerging in the early 70s and even bands today are still being influenced by the likes of the Beatles, Rolling Stones, and The Doors.
