Start by marking "Invincible (Ark Royal #12) ... I have enjoyed most of the "Ark Royal universe" books. The last one felt flat, and this one feels like a lot more of the same. There is conflict and action, but large segments were skimmed over because the read so much like sections of other books in the series.

Invincible sets up a new story arc within the Ark Royal series and while I will no doubt continue to read the series this latest incarnation lacked some of the drive and impetus of previous novels. I wasn't all that enamoured with some of the new characters and well let's be honest mankind is facing another interstellar war, this is getting a little repetitive :)
