The Gridlock Economy How Too

Usually, private ownership creates wealth, but too much ownership has the opposite effect -- it creates gridlock. When too many people own pieces of one thing, whether a physical or intellectual resource, cooperation breaks down, wealth disappears, and everybody loses. Heller's paradox is at the center of The Gridlock Economy. Today's leading edge of innovation -- in high tech, biomedicine, music, film, real estate -- requires the assembly of separately owned resources.
