The Thirteenth Tribe - Bible Believers

The Thirteenth Tribe is a book that attempts to explain the origins of Eastern Europe's Jewish population, largely decimated by the Nazi onslaught during the Second World War. Koestler shows through extensive research, how a trading empire was set up by a tribe we know as the Khazars between the expanding power blocs of Christianity and Islam; how the people were converted to Judaism by their king as a way of standing apart from both, and how the people and their wealth were dispersed through ...
